

School Leaver

This year Mary McCowan leaves Durness primary School to start on her secondary adventure at Kinlochbervie. Mary has completed her stay at primary school as the only person in her class for the seven years she attended and will be joining a group of 10 others at secondary. At the prize giving at the end of term Mary was presented with the Montgomery Rose Bowl and the Bobby Morison badminton shield, a French Dictionary a church of Scotland bible and a certificate for services to Durness primary School. Mary for the last year has been chair of the Pupil Council. Lewis Arrowsmith was awarded a book token and certificate of achievement and Chloe Andrews the Sandwood Quaich for arts, all the children received certificates of performance in class work and Gymnastics. The end of term prize giving was accompanied by the summary of the year from Head teacher Graham Bruce giving his 25th address and an excellent musical concert with all the children participating in a presentation arranged and produced by visiting music teacher Gail Ross.

With six new entrants after the summer holidays the school role will reach 25. Starting is Titus Clark, Kerin Corbett, Sarah Robins, Elidh Jackson, Katie Thompson and Tia Keith.
