Blas Event

In Durness on the 13 September North Coast Cèilidh will host Donald Black Band and Addie Harper Jnr Band and Fèis Chataibh Cèilidh Trail. Durness hosts the return of Donald Black and his band to the North Coast. Donald is a true master of the mouth organ, with a very distinctive piping style to his playing. As well as this, Donald has entertained audiences the world over with his stunning slow air arrangements. Joining Donald and his band tonight is the Addie Harper Junior band, a real favourite of audiences in the North and in high demand for dances and accordion and fiddle clubs across the country. Completing the programme will be a selection of songs and tunes from the Fèis Chataibh 2008 Cèilidh Trail crew. The North West Sutherland Food Link will be running a pre-event 'Tattie Tea' cafe from 6-7.30pm before and during the interval of the Durness Blas Event-see local posters and website www.blas-festival.com for details of the event. The cafe will provide the opportunity for people to enjoy a range of potato based dishes from a variety of locally produced potatoes, together with a selection of tasty soups and salads, tea, coffee and home baking. There will be tattie displays and information about the humble spud too. Venue Durness Village Hall, Durness 7.30pm
